- no cardiac catheterization before—a mistake (Roberts), 930
- Valvular abnormalities, prognostic correlation to related hemodynamic, rhythm, conduction, and: echographic-quantified severity of mitral annulus calcification (Mellino et al.), 222
- aortic stenosis, range gated echo-Doppler velocity and turbulence mapping in patients with (Goldberg et al.), 858
- severe, identification of in adult patients: reliable estimation of peak left ventricular systolic pressure by M-mode echographic-determined end-diastolic relative wall thickness (Reichek and Devereux), 202

- regurgitation, a new sign of ascending root dissection in absence of: downward displacement of competent aortic valve prosthesis without LV enlargement (Gooch), 920 (Brief comm.)
- Vanillylmandelic acid, urine, increased 24-hour, in patients without pheochromocytoma (Nanji and Blank), 1088 (Letter)
- Variant angina patients with coronary artery spasm, variability of electrocardiographic responses to repeated ergonovine provocation in (Whittle et al.), 161
- pectoris and inhibition of ergonovine coronary constriction, efficacy of chronic amiodarone therapy in patients with (Rutitzky, Girotti, and Rosenbaum), 38
- severe coronary disease, and/or impaired early prognosis, identification of high-risk subgroup with: continuous electrocardiographic monitoring in patients with unstable angina pectoris (Johnson et al.), 4
- Vasodilation, coronary, dipyridamole-induced, initial and delayed right ventricular thallium-201 rest-imaging following: relationship to right coronary artery pathoanatomy (Brown et al.), 1019
- Vasodilator(s) in heart failure secondary to coronary artery disease (Parnley, Rouleau, and Chatterjee), 625
- nylidrin, results of double-blind study versus: beneficial hemorheologic therapy of chronic peripheral arterial disorders with pentoxifylline (Accetto), 864
- role of in the changing phases of acute myocardial infarction (Swan, Shah, and Rubin), 707
- therapy: implications in acute myocardial infarction and congestive heart failure (Cohn), 773
- Vasospasm, coronary, acute allergic reaction with (Hirah), 928 (Letter)
- Reply (Ginsburg and Bristow), 928
- role of in the pathogenesis of myocardial ischemia and angina pectoris (Gorlin), 598
- Vasospastic angina, ergonovine-induced, negative U waves and peaked T waves without ST changes during spontaneous and (Matsuguchi et al.), 918 (Brief comm.)
- ischemic mechanism of frequent asymptomatic transient ST-T changes during continuous electrocardiographic monitoring in selected unstable angina patients (Biagini et al.), 13
- ST segment elevation than with ST depression, variable exercise capacity in variant angina and greater exertional thallium-201 myocardial defect during (Shimokawa et al.), 142 (Brief comm.)
- Vegetation(s) diastolic sound in mitral valve endocarditis (Valovis and Charuzi), 432 (Brief comm.)
- ultrasound-detectable, diagnostic accuracy of M-mode echocardiography in active infective endocarditis and prognostic implications of (Come, Isaacs, and Riley), 839
- Venous connection, pulmonary, total anomalous: survival for 62 years without surgical intervention (McManus, Luetzeler, and Roberts), 298 (Brief comm.)
- Ventilatory therapy in adult respiratory distress syndrome, cardiac lung, shock lung, and principles of: mechanisms and consequences of pulmonary edema (Ayres), 97
- Ventricle, left, intact human, dynamic three-dimensional echocardiographic reconstruction of the: technique and initial observations in patients (Geiser et al.), 1056
- Ventricular aneurysm, submitral left, two-dimensional echocardiographic features of (Davis et al.), 289 (Brief comm.)
- arrhythmias and their response to antiarrhythmic therapy, programmed ventricular stimulation in predicting vulnerability to (Mason et al.), 633
- life-threatening, antiarrhythmic efficacy and electrophysiologic actions of amiodarone in patients with: potent suppression of spontaneously occurring tachyarrhythmias versus inconsistent abolition of induced ventricular tachycardia (Nademanee et al.), 950
- numerators and denominators revisited relative to electrophysiologic study of: the stampede to stimulation (Graboyes), 1089
- postinfarction—which should be treated? (Bigger, Weld, and Rolnitzky), 660
- recurrent, and acute myocardial infarction in Behcet's syndrome (Schiff et al.), 438 (Brief comm.)

- role of programmed stimulation in assessing vulnerability to (Horowitz et al.), 604
- dysplasia, arrhythmogenic right: clinical features, diagnostic techniques, and current management (Rossi et al.), 415
- dysrhythmias, chronic, incidence and severity of after repair of tetralogy of Fallot (Kavey, Blackman, and Sondheimer), 342
- extrasystoles, late-coupled, ventricular tachycardia initiated by: the concept of longitudinal dissociation in the microentry pathway (Kinoshita et al.), 1090
- fibrillation, primary, during EEG in a psychiatric patient (Morrison et al.), 1081 (Letter)
- termination of in patients using a catheter electrode, low energy synchronized cardioversion of ventricular tachycardia and: clinical transvenous cardioversion of recurrent life-threatening ventricular tachyarrhythmias (Zipes et al.), 789
- threshold, increased, with severe myocardial ischemia (Fisher, Sonnenblick, and Kirk), 966
- function, first-pass radionuclide angiography in visualization of acute myocardial infarction ventricular septal defect and assessment of (Hecht and Zibelli), 436 (Brief comm.)
- left, quantification of by two-dimensional echocardiography: consideration of factors restricting image quality (Geiser et al.), 905
- premature beats, spontaneous, initiation of atrial fibrillation by in concealed Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome (Shen and Sung), 911 (Brief comm.)
- septal defect, acute myocardial infarction, and assessment of ventricular function, first-pass radionuclide angiography in visualization of (Hecht and Zibelli), 436 (Brief comm.)
- repair, interfering Teflon, immediate postoperative regurgitant malfunction of Björk-Shiley aortic valve due to: correction by rotation of prosthetic anulus (Wilcox et al.), 148 (Brief comm.)
- stimulation, programmed, in predicting vulnerability to ventricular arrhythmias and their response to antiarrhythmic therapy (Mason et al.), 633
- tachyarrhythmias, recurrent life-threatening, clinical transvenous cardioversion of: low energy synchronized cardioversion of ventricular tachycardia and termination of ventricular fibrillation in patients using a catheter electrode (Zipes et al.), 789
- symptomatic, randomized double-blind placebo controlled crossover trial documenting oral lorainide efficacy in suppression of (Keefe, Peters, and Winkle), 511
- tachycardia and flecainide-induced QT prolongation (Lui et al.), 567 (Brief comm.)
- aneurysmectomy and endocardial resection for: favorable hemodynamic and antiarrhythmic results in patients with global left ventricular dysfunction (Martin et al.), 960
- induced, potent suppression of spontaneously occurring tachyarrhythmias versus inconsistent abolition of: antiarrhythmic efficacy and electrophysiologic actions of amiodarone in patients with life-threatening ventricular arrhythmias (Nademanee et al.), 950
- initiated by late-coupled ventricular extrasystoles: the concept of longitudinal dissociation in the microentry pathway (Kinoshita et al.), 1090
- life-threatening exertional, in ischemic heart disease best treated by coronary bypass surgery? (Cantwell), 152 (Letter)
- low energy synchronized cardioversion of and termination of ventricular fibrillation in patients using a catheter electrode: clinical transvenous cardioversion of recurrent life-threatening ventricular tachyarrhythmias (Zipes et al.), 789

- nonsustained, drug conversion of to sustained ventricular tachycardia during serial electrophysiologic studies: identification of drugs that exacerbate tachycardia and potential mechanisms (Rinkenberger et al.), 177
- sustained, sequential regional phase mapping of radionuclide gated biventriculograms in patients with: close correlation with electrophysiologic characteristics (Swiryn et al.), 319
- vs SVT with aberration, M-mode echogram in differential diagnosis of (Curione et al.), 1084 (Letter)
- tumors, primary benign intramural, in children: pre- and postoperative ECG, echocardiographic, and angiocardiographic evaluation (Biancanello et al.), 852
- Ventriculography, graded exercise radionuclide, walk-through angina phenomenon demonstrated by: possible coronary spasm mechanisms (Rizi et al.), 292 (Brief comm.)
- left, quantitative axial oblique contrast: validation of the method by demonstrating improved visualization of regional wall motion and mitral valve function with accurate volume determinations (Rogers et al.), 185
- radionuclide, evaluation of postresuscitation left ventricular global and segmental function by in sudden coronary death survivors of prehospital cardiac arrest: correlation to subsequent short-term prognosis (Ptacin et al.), 54
- single-blind placebo crossover evaluation of comparative effects of oral verapamil and propranolol on exercise-induced myocardial ischemia and energetics in patients with coronary artery disease using (Josephson et al.), 978
- Verapamil and propranolol, oral, comparative effects of on exercise-induced myocardial ischemia and energetics in patients with coronary artery disease: single-blind placebo crossover evaluation using radionuclide ventriculography (Josephson et al.), 978
- effects on retrograde conduction in supraventricular tachycardia therapy (Aryanpur-Kashani), 306 (Letter)
- Reply (Hamer, Peter, and Mandel), 306
- Volume overload, left ventricular, aorticaval fistula-induced chronic, and normal systolic performance, comparative hemodynamic effects of digoxin vs nitroprusside in conscious dogs with (O'Rourke, Badke, and Forst), 489
- Volumetric scanning tomography, synchronous, high temporal resolution: potential roles in clinical evaluation of ischemic heart disease (Wood et al.), 649

W

- Walk-through angina phenomenon demonstrated by graded exercise radionuclide ventriculography: possible coronary spasm mechanisms (Rizi et al.), 292 (Brief comm.)
- Waller before Einthoven in the clinical development of noninvasive ECG (Besterman), 572 (Letter)
- Water hardness, myocardial metal concentrations, and sudden coronary death (Chipperfield), 1085 (Letter)
- Wolff-Parkinson-White configuration in sinus rhythm, wide QRS antidromic tachycardia of left bundle branch block pattern without: prolonged and decremental antegrade conduction properties in right anterior accessory connections (Gillette et al.), 66
- syndrome, concealed, initiation of atrial fibrillation by spontaneous ventricular premature beats in (Shen and Sung), 911 (Brief comm.)
